PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is being sent to stockholders on or about April 12, 2002, in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. (the "Company"), to be held on Monday, May 20, 2002, and at any adjournment thereof.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be not less than five nor more than nine. The Board of Directors has determined that the number of directors should be seven in 2002. The number of directors, within the maximum and minimum, is to be determined at each Annual Meeting by resolution adopted by the shareholders or, in the absence of such resolution, the number of directors elected at the meeting shall constitute the number of directors of the Company. The Board has nominated the following seven individuals to serve as directors until the next Annual Meeting and until their successors shall have been elected and shall qualify. Unless authority is withheld, it is intended that Proxies received in response to this solicitation will be voted in favor of the following seven nominees:

Section 16 Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires certain of the Company's officers and its directors and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Such officers, directors and stockholders are required by the SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all such reports that they file.

Based solely on a review of copies of reports filed with the SEC since January 1, 2001, and of representations by certain officers and directors, all persons subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) filed the reports required to be filed in 2001 on a timely basis.

Stock Options

The Company's Board of Directors and stockholders have approved and adopted the 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan of Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. (the "Option Plan"), for the benefit of key employees. The Option Plan covers 250,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Option Plan provides for the granting of stock options that qualify as incentive stock options pursuant to Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code as well as nonqualified options. The exercise of a nonqualified stock option will result in compensation income equal to the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the stock acquired upon the exercise. Earl E. Congdon and John R. Congdon are not eligible to participate in the Option Plan.

There were no options granted in 2001 and no additional options can be granted under the Option Plan after August 31, 2001.

Options to purchase 224,000 shares under the Option Plan have been granted. As of March 25, 2002, there are options outstanding covering 38,000 shares of Common Stock at the exercise price of $17.87 per share, 31,500 shares at the exercise price of $19.25 per share, 23,500 shares at the exercise price of $19.00 per share and 18,500 shares at the exercise price of $10.00 per share. All of the options have been granted as incentive options. The sale of shares issuable under the Option Plan have been registered with the SEC.

The following table reflects cumulative information regarding grants under the Option Plan:

Compensation of Directors

Each of the Company's outside directors receives an annual retainer of $10,000 plus $1,200 for each meeting attended, including Board meetings and meetings of committees of the Board of Directors not held in conjunction with a meeting of the Board. Such directors also receive reimbursement of expenses incurred as a director. Directors who are also officers of the Company receive no such fees or expense reimbursement.

Report of Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") is responsible for conducting an annual review of the Company's compensation plan for its executive officers including the evaluation of the components of the plan, the standards of performance measurement and the relationship between performance and compensation. The Committee reviews the compensation of each executive officer and makes specific recommendations to the Board of Directors based on factors that include the individual officer's performance, the ability of the Company to attract and retain qualified, experienced personnel and whether the plan provides appropriate motivation to achieve goals outlined by the Board of Directors.

In determining the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee began its evaluation prior to the time of the public offering in October 1991. The base salary was determined, in part, by comparison with the compensation of chief executive officers of other companies of comparable size and levels of profitability. The base salary is reviewed each year and compared to that of other chief executive officers as reported in various publications, such as Forbes magazine. The Chief Executive Officer received a 1.4% increase in the weekly base salary rate in 2001, which was primarily an inflationary adjustment factor. Since 1991, the average increase in the base salary rate has been 1.8%.

The incentive bonus for the Chief Executive Officer is based upon the Company's profitability, a program that has been in place for many years, and the Compensation Committee believes that this is a fair measure of executive bonus compensation. The bonus is based upon a percentage, determined by the Committee, of pre-tax profits. In 2000, the Compensation Committee reduced the percentage of pre-tax profits used in determining the incentive bonus for many of the participants in the plan, including the Chief Executive Officer. The decision to revise and reduce the incentive bonus plan was based upon the Committee's projections of future profitability and its objective of compensating its senior employees with a balance of competitive salaries and bonus incentives. The salary and bonus amounts for 2001, 2000 and 1999 are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table. Both the base salary and the incentive bonus are evaluated in determining overall compensation. The Chief Executive Officer is not eligible to receive options under the Company's stock option plan.

The base salary for all other officers is based upon the experience and qualifications of each officer, with the additional objective of remaining competitive in the industry in recruiting and retaining a well-qualified and effective management team. The incentive bonus for officers is determined by the Compensation Committee and is based upon the same criteria as the Chief Executive Officer, the performance of the Company as measured by its profitability. No stock options were granted to any individual in 2001.

During 1993, Section 162(m) was added to the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") that generally limits amounts that can be deducted for compensation paid to executives to $1 million, unless certain requirements are met. No executive received compensation in excess of $1 million in 2001; therefore, there were no compensation amounts that would be deemed nondeductible for the Company under Section 162(m) of the Code. The Committee will continue to monitor the applicability of this section of the Code to the Company's compensation program each year.

Earl E. Congdon

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Earl E. Congdon, Chairman of the Board of the Company and its Chief Executive Officer, and John R. Congdon, Vice Chairman of the Board, are members of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Holscher is not an employee of the Company and receives no compensation other than directors' fees from the Company.

Earl E. Congdon and John R. Congdon are each 50% owners of E & J Enterprises ("E & J"), a Virginia general partnership that leases trailers to the Company. Pursuant to an agreement dated August 1, 1991, the Company leased 163 trailers from E & J at a monthly rental of $44,010. This lease expired on July 31, 1996, but was extended for an additional term of three years, which expired on July 31, 1999. The first extension of the lease required declining monthly payments ranging from $35,045 in the first year to $33,415 in the third year. On July 26, 1999, the Company's Board of Directors approved a second extension of the trailer lease agreement for a period of one year at the monthly rental rate of $33,415. At the end of the one-year term, the lease converted to a month-to-month lease with a monthly lease payment of $33,415, which requires a six-month notice of cancellation. Under the original lease and all extensions, the Company is responsible for insurance coverage, maintenance and repairs to the trailers. The Company has no purchase rights at the end of the lease term. Upon termination of the lease, for specified reasons, E & J may require the Company to purchase the trailers for cash at fair market value. The Company paid $400,980 in 2001 for trailers leased from E & J under the lease agreement, which was treated as an operating lease.

In December 1988, the Company sold to E & J certain tracts of unimproved land and a vacant service center facility in exchange for a non-interest-bearing receivable in the amount of $579,798. E & J has repaid the amount outstanding under the receivable as parcels of the property have been sold. As of December 31, 2001, the amount outstanding on the receivable was $195,677.

Old Dominion Truck Leasing, Inc., a North Carolina corporation whose voting stock is owned by the Earl E. Congdon Intangibles Trust, David S. Congdon, Trustee (38.2%), John R. Congdon Revocable Trust (38.2%) and members of Earl E. Congdon's and John R. Congdon's families (23.6%), is engaged in the business of purchasing and leasing tractors, trailers and other vehicles. John R. Congdon is Chairman of the Board and Earl E. Congdon is the Vice Chairman of the Board of Leasing. Both individuals also serve on the Board of Directors and Compensation Committee of Old Dominion Freight Line. Since 1986, the Company and Leasing have combined their requirements for the purchase of tractors, trailers, equipment, parts, tires and fuel. The Company believes that, by so doing, it is often able to obtain pricing discounts because of the increased level of purchasing. While this is beneficial to the Company, management believes that the termination of this relationship would not have a material adverse impact upon the Company's financial results.

In 2001, the Company charged Leasing $10,586 for vehicle repair, maintenance and other services, which it provides to Leasing at cost. In addition, the Company charged Leasing $12,000 in 2001 for rental of a vehicle maintenance and service facility located in Chesapeake, Virginia.

The Company purchased $286,838 of maintenance and other services from Leasing in 2001. Old Dominion believes that the prices it pays for such services are lower than would be charged by unaffiliated third parties for the same quality of work and intends to continue to purchase maintenance and other services from Leasing, provided that its prices continue to be favorable to the Company. In addition, Leasing has a right of first refusal for the Company's future tractor and trailer leases, exercisable on the same terms offered to the Company by third parties. In 2001, the Company paid Leasing $8,363 for short-term tractor rentals. Currently, the Company has no long-term equipment leases in effect with Leasing.

The Company leases a service center facility in Greensboro, North Carolina, from an irrevocable trust created by Earl E. Congdon and John R. Congdon, for the benefit of their families. On July 14, 2000, the Company's five-year lease of the property expired and the lease converted to a month-to-month lease. The five-year lease required escalating annual payments ranging from $29,000 per month in the first year to $31,391 in the fifth year and was accounted for as an operating lease. Under the month-to-month lease, initial payments of $31,391 were increased to $31,705 on December 15, 2000. The current agreement requires the Company to maintain insurance, maintenance and repairs to the facility. The Company made payments totaling $380,460 in 2001 under this lease. The Company has purchased an additional 20 acres of land adjacent to the property. The land will be sold to the Trust so that the entire combined acreage can be used for the expansion of the existing service center. The Company's Board of Directors, after review by the Audit Committee, has authorized the Company to lend the trust the sum of $380,000 to purchase the land at 7.5% interest to be repaid and amortized in monthly installments over ten years. The Company plans to construct and extend an additional 106 doors to the existing dock structure and make other improvements at a cost of approximately $9,700,000, which will be treated as a leasehold improvement and will be amortized over the life of a long-term lease. It is anticipated that the existing lease will be renegotiated for a longer term upon completion of the improvements; however, the final details of the structure of this transaction have not been determined. The expansion of the Greensboro facility will allow it to serve as a major breakbulk facility and will accommodate the need for additional capacity that has resulted from growth in business levels, which has required the Company to lease a 60 door service center facility in nearby High Point, NC in January, 1998. The Greensboro expansion will allow the Company to terminate the lease for the High Point service center and consolidate those operations at the enlarged Greensboro facility. It is anticipated that this will result in an increase in productivity and efficiency. The expansion project is expected to be completed by fall 2002.

The Company is a party to certain split dollar life insurance policies, of which certain members of the families of Earl E. Congdon and John R. Congdon are designated beneficiaries. See Note (2) under the Summary Compensation Table in this proxy statement.

The E & J lease and the equipment purchasing and servicing arrangement with Leasing permit the Company to obtain certain equipment and services at prices comparable to, or more favorable than, prices charged by unaffiliated third parties. The Company believes that the rent paid under the lease for the Greensboro service center is comparable to, or more favorable than, prices charged by unaffiliated third parties.

Each of the foregoing transactions has been reviewed by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, which consists of three nonemployee directors. The Audit Committee has approved the transactions that continue to be in effect as being fair to the Company. The Audit Committee believes that the terms and conditions of the foregoing transactions are substantially the same as, or more favorable to the Company than, would be available from nonaffiliates. The Company intends to enter into a re-negotiation and extension of the Greensboro, North Carolina lease as described above. Any extensions, modifications or renewals of existing transactions with such persons must be approved, in advance, by the Audit Committee as being on terms no less favorable to the Company than the terms that could be obtained in a similar transaction with an unaffiliated party.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Company's Board of Directors held four regular meetings during 2001. All directors attended all meetings except for the January 2001 meeting, at which John R. Congdon was not present. One special meeting was held by conference call in 2001. All directors participated in this special meeting except John R. Congdon and Franz F. Holscher.

The Board of Directors has four standing committees: Executive Committee, Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Stock Option Plan Committee.

The Executive Committee consists of Messrs. Earl E. Congdon (Chairman), John R. Congdon and David S. Congdon. The Executive Committee is empowered to act between meetings of the Board of Directors with powers of the full Board, except with respect to certain matters. This committee did not meet in 2001.

The Audit Committee currently consists of Harold G. Hoak (Chairman), Franz F. Holscher and John A. Ebeling, three of the Company's nonemployee directors. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. Information regarding the functions performed by this committee is set forth in the "Report of Audit Committee", which is included in this annual proxy statement. The Audit Committee met four times in 2001, at which all members were present.

The Compensation Committee consists of Franz F. Holscher (Chairman), Earl E. Congdon and John R. Congdon. The Compensation Committee meets periodically to review and approve the salaries and classifications of the Company's executive officers and other significant employees and its personnel policies. The Compensation Committee met once in 2001, at which all members were present.

The Stock Option Plan Committee consists of Earl E. Congdon (Chairman), John R. Congdon, Harold G. Hoak and Franz F. Holscher. The Committee has authority to administer the Company's 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan, including authority to determine persons eligible to receive options and the terms upon which options are granted. The Stock Option Plan Committee did not meet in 2001.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Ernst & Young LLP has served the Company as independent auditors since 1994. A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders with the opportunity to make a statement if he desires to do so and to answer any questions that concern that firm's work for the Company.

The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have approved all of the nonaudit services performed by Ernst & Young LLP and believe they have no effect on audit independence. The Audit Committee has authorized management to engage the Company's independent accountants in nonaudit services relating to preparation of tax returns and working with state and federal agents on audits, but other matters require prior approval from the Audit Committee. For the last fiscal year, audit fees were $105,500, financial information systems design and implementation services fees were $0 and all other fees were $45,010.

REPORT OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee, which is comprised of three independent nonemployee directors, oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards and under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as currently in effect. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as currently in effect, and has considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal and independent auditors to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

The Audit Committee has also reviewed transactions between the Company and entities in which officers or directors of the Company or their affiliates have material interests and has determined that such existing transactions are fair to the Company. Any new transactions with officers, directors or their affiliates, and any extensions, modifications or renewals of existing transactions with such persons must be approved in advance by the Audit Committee as being on terms no less favorable to the Company than the terms that could be obtained in a similar transaction with an unaffiliated party.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee,

Harold G. Hoak, Chairman
Franz F. Holscher
John A. Ebeling

GENERAL

The accompanying Proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company, and the entire cost of such solicitation will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation by mail, arrangements will be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxy material to their principals, and the Company will reimburse them for their reasonable expenses in so doing.

The Board of Directors has fixed March 25, 2002, as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. On March 25, 2002, there were 8,315,240 outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company, each entitled to one vote.

The presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the record date constitutes a quorum for purposes of conducting business at the meeting. Stockholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present. With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld. Votes that are withheld will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect, although they will be counted for purposes of establishing the presence of a quorum. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have authority to vote on certain items when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. Brokers that do not receive instructions are entitled to vote on the election of directors.

Where a choice is specified on any Proxy as to the vote on any matter to come before the meeting, the Proxy will be voted in accordance with such specification. If no specification is made but the Proxy is properly signed, the shares represented thereby will be voted in favor of each proposal. Such proxies, whether submitted by stockholders of record or by brokers holding shares in street name for their customers ("broker non-votes"), will be voted in favor of nominees for directors. Broker non-votes will not be counted either way in voting on other matters (where direction of beneficial owners is required) and, therefore, will have the effect of negative votes.

Any stockholder submitting the accompanying Proxy has the right to revoke it by notifying the Secretary of the Company in writing at any time prior to the voting of the Proxy. A Proxy is suspended if the person giving the Proxy attends the meeting and elects to vote in person.

Management is not aware that any matters, other than those specified above, will be presented for action at the meeting, but, if any other matters do properly come before the meeting, the persons named as agents in the Proxy will vote upon such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Annual Report on Form 10-K

Stockholders may obtain a copy of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended December 31, 2001, without charge by writing to J. Wes Frye, Treasurer, Chief Financial Officer and Assistant Secretary, Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc., 500 Old Dominion Way, Thomasville, North Carolina 27360. Exhibits are not included, but copies of them may be obtained from the Company upon payment of copying charges.

Deadline for Stockholders' Proposals

Any stockholder desiring to present a proposal for action at the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting must deliver the proposal to the Company at its executive offices no later than November 22, 2002.

In addition to any other applicable requirements, for business to be properly brought before the annual meeting by a stockholder, even if the proposal is not to be included in the Company's proxy statement, the Company's bylaws provide that the stockholder must give timely notice of such business in writing to the Secretary of the Company at least 60 days and not more than 90 days prior to the meeting, except that if public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given less than 70 days prior to the meeting, notice by the stockholder will be considered timely if received by the Secretary by the close of business on the 10th day after public disclosure of the date of the meeting was made. As to each item of business, the notice must contain (i) a brief description of the business to be brought before the meeting and the reasons therefore, (ii) the name and address of record of the stockholder and the number of shares of the Company's stock owned of record or beneficially by the stockholder and (iii) any material interest the stockholder has in the proposed business.
